

RELAXED SCREENING

Keep the Change

David and Sarah meet at a support group for autistic adults and begin a journey of discovery, getting to know themselves and each other. This award-winning comedy, based on real-life experiences (including those of lead actor Brandon Polansky) is fresh, warm and empathetic.

Presented in partnership with the Film Department, Queen Mary University of London, in collaboration with the Autism through Cinema Neurocultures Collective, supported by Wellcome Trust.

The screening will be introduced and there will be a facilitated discussion afterwards.

This event will be led by Steven Eastwood, filmmaker and Professor of Film Practice at Queen Mary University of London, and artist Sam Ahern, a member of the Neurocultures Collective.

RELAXED SCREENINGS

Relaxed screenings are presented each month for those in the neurodiverse community and their carers and assistants.

Our relaxed screening adjustments include:

- Doors will open 30 minutes before the screening start time.
- No trailers will be shown.
- The programme will be introduced.
- Customers will be able to choose their own seats in the auditorium, but we will do our best to accommodate any specific seating requests.
- Our house lights will remain on a low level throughout the screening, and the volume will be turned slightly down.
- Please feel free to move around in the auditorium and make noise.
- There are two ushers in the auditorium.
- There will be a safe space for customers to use if they need to leave the auditorium.
- Please ask us if you need help.
